Audio Cards

10 sets of audio cards for use with the Califone CardMaster. Each prerecorded audio card has a realistic photograph or full-color illustration. Some of the sets include basic sentences to help provide context for the words. As students hear the words on these cards and record themselves saying the words, they develop and improve reading and vocabulary skills.

Basic Grammar Series

Basic Grammar Series, by Kristine Lindsay, incorporates essential grammar skills in 3 leveled binders, each including more than 200 activities. The program offers a variety of activities in order to help students fully master each skill. Worksheets have been designed to address the major learning modalities (visual, auditory, and tactile/kinesthetic). Each of the 3 binders is leveled, beginning with the most basic grammar skills in Binder 1 and gradually increasing the difficulty level in Binders 2 and 3. The reading level also increases from 1.0 to 3.0.

Choice Making Series

3 easy-to-read, high interest novels focus on the consequences of life choices. Author Bernice Loeb, former special education teacher and school psychologist, carefully constructs the stories so that readers "help" each main character choose what to do at a critical point. Ramón must decide just how high a price he's willing to pay to hang with his cool new friends. Nikki's dilemma concerns dropping out of school for an acting career. Li wants to buy his depressed mother a beautiful pin but has no money.

Written for a 5th grade reading level. Teacher's guide includes discussion points and IEP benchmarks.

Series includes 3 softbound books, each about 120 pages, 2001.

Daily Reading Comprehension

Daily Reading Comprehension books present high interest, low readability stories for every day of the school year. Each one-page story tells of a particular event that happened on that date. Some events are well known—like Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday on January 15. Others are more obscure—like the first Academy Award presentation on May 16. All stories are well-written, concise and present reading levels at 3rd to 4th grade. Corresponding activity pages assess reading comprehension skills. . Stories and activities can be photocopied or printed from the PDF.

Daily Reading Comprehension books are arranged by date: Semester 1 takes students from September through January 14; Semester 2 continues from January 15 through May 31.

Semester 1 book, covered spiral bound, 282 pgs., includes a Win/Mac CD with printable PDF, 2005. Semester 2 book, covered spiral bound, 286 pgs., includes a Win/Mac CD with printable PDF, 2005. Attainment and Remedia Publications.

Essential Sight Words

Turn struggling learners into successful readers with this research-based reading program. With 30 high-interest books and over 650 reproducible pages, the complete program provides multiple opportunities to learn and read 200 sight words within a meaningful context. Field tests show that the program is an effective teaching method for a wide variety of student populations, including struggling readers, students with learning differences, and English language learners of all ages.

Rooted in Research

Written by 3 professors of education, Nita Sundbye, Norma Dyck, and Flora Wyatt, the Essential Sight Words Reading Program incorporates research-based strategies throughout its easy-to-use system. The 200 words at the core of the program represent the most frequently-used words in the English language according to both the Kucera and Francis word list and the Harris-Jacobsen Short Readability Word List. Instructional activities have been carefully designed to give students varied and repeated practice in identifying, understanding, reading, and writing each word. The books use carefully controlled vocabulary and realistic illustrations to help struggling learners read successfully and fluently.

Phoneme Track Workbook

Grades Kindergarten-2, Inclusion

Suitable for K-3 students, it is also ideal for older learners who are experiencing specific phonological difficulties. Phoneme Track Workbook encourages learners to develop phonemic awareness by encouraging lots of talking, listening and playing with sounds.

The learner hears phonemes in words and sees the written representation of the phonemes. Activities provide practice with phoneme manipulation, segmentation, and blending so that the student can become confident with this essential skill for fluent reading and spelling. The workbook contains take away activities for word beginnings, ends and middles.

The activity sheets in the workbook can be photocopied.

Phoneme Track was developed to support learners in their acquisition of vital literacy skills in the inclusive classroom. The workbook is appropriate for older users, those with specific phonological difficulties, and for mainstream teaching of early learners. Research-based, this workbook and it's companion CD-ROM program is ideal for "Reading First" programs.

Attainment's WordWheel has 2 working sides, with side 1 being easier. Here students make words like spoon and cat. Side two presents more complicated consonant and vowel combinations to make words like pickle and brush. Design your own activities or try our suggestions. Students learn spelling rules, increase vocabulary and see phonics patterns in action. Made with durable, laminated card stock. Instructions included. Our unique design is so cool, you'll want one for every student!

Spell Track Workbook

Grades Kindergarten-2, Inclusion

By circling (tracking) each letter in one continuous movement, at the same time as saying the letter name, the learner is using visual and kinaesthetic senses as well as learning the phonic components of the word. Writing out the spelling from memory, saying the letter names or mnemonic as he or she does so, provides reinforcement of correct letter formation and good handwriting.

Use of Spell Track activities:

- Scan a line of type effectively, to improve reading, letter recognition and discrimination skills
- Correct problems of left-to-right directionality, omissions and reversals
- Improve visual recognition, matching and selecting; improve graphic knowledge and phoneme/graphic correspondence
- Work on fine motor control
- Consolidate phonic skills and early spelling strategies
- Learn proof-reading skills
